From 31 December 2011 to 31 December 2012 EuroCOP represented 34 national police unions with a total number of 467.509 police officers.

In 2012 EuroCOP has gained one member organisation (ErNE Spain) and lost one member organisation (GRA Ireland). The total number of represented police officers has decreased by -1,02% from 472.313 to 467.509 members.

Without ErNE that has joined EuroCOP in April 2012, the total number would have decreased by -1,75%.

Of the 34 represented organisations 11 have lost members, 18 have gained members, 3 stayed the same and 2 have not submitted their numbers until 10 April 2013. Until now the largest decrease in relative numbers occurred in NPS Bulgaria (-14,29%), the largest increase occurred in CNPF UK (19,41%).

Form the 34 national police unions 29 are affiliated as full member organisations. From this 10 have lost members, 16 have gained members and 3 stayed the same. In total the number of full members represented by EuroCOP has decreased by -1,02% from 454.045 to 449.429 members.
